

Sources: What happens when a query sent to Muse includes a limiter not supported by a SP?

If a search with limiters is performed on a Muse Source Package then all the limiters which are not supported by that Source Package are ignored - only supported ones are processed. There will never be an unsupported query caused by the presence of some search limiters in the query. This is valid for all Muse Source Packages.

Unique solution ID: #1061

Author: Administrator

Last update: 2013-09-02 11:53